

Review: Holiday Reading – Recommendations?

My family and I are just about to go away on holiday. I'm going to not be blogging (or rss feed reading) for a month!

But... I will be reading books and writing reviews (which I find useful for myself and my own thoughts) and publishing them later.

And... I will be visiting Ridley College bookshop at the beginning of the holidays.

So... Anybody got any recommendations for books that I can read while I'm away?
