Mouneer Anis in Tasmania

Bishop John informs us that Archbishop Mouneer Anis of Egypt, pictured, will be a keynote speaker at January's CMS Summerview conference in Tasmania.

I've written about Abp. Anis a number of times with reference to both the religious tumult in Egypt and the ecclesiastical tumult in the Anglican Communioin. I have been impressed by his clarity and integrity.

The CMS conference is January 12 to 15, 2012. The details are not yet on the CMS Tas website but I assume they will be shortly.
