Something anthemic

Rend Collective have released their new album, As Family We Go. Here's the introductory video.

It's rare that I come across something that is so anthemic to the way Gill and I seek to lead life.

> We as a church were never meant to be a timid club huddled together for safety, but a pilgrim family progress, chasing after the wild lion heart of God…
> We weren't created to journey through life alone, but we're called "the family of God"for a reason…
>
> We've got to break out of the cages of safety and fear into the wide open spaces of the unknown trusting that nothing is impossible with God…
>
> We were never intended to go this road alone, we were given to each other as family, and as family we go.
